Small business information forum scheduled

A small business conference will be held Tuesday in Syracuse to inform small businesses of the multitude of assistance programs available to them on the local, regional, state and federal levels.

PartnerAmerica, a partnership between the U.S. Conference of Mayors and American Management Services Inc., will host the conference 7:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Hotel Syracuse, 500 S. Warren St. The event is free.

Mayor Matt Driscoll, a former small-business owner himself, will deliver opening remarks to the conference. He will be followed by a presentation, "Do You Really Want to Make a Profit?," by Louis Mořca, executive vice president of American Management Services and national spokesperson for PartnerAmerica.

Also making presentations will be representatives of the Greater Syracuse Chamber of Commerce, the Metropolitan Development Association, Syracuse, Onondaga County, Empire State Development Corp., the General Services Administration and the U.S. Small Business Administration.
