George Cloutier honored by Mayor

Mayor Lois Frankel named PartnerAmerica Day in West Palm Beach and presents George Cloutier, with a proclamation honoring his work with the US Conference of Mayors and small businesses across the country.

PartnerAmerica Day was proclaimed recently by West Palm Beach mayor, Lois Frankel during a ceremony at City Hall.

Cloutier, Palm Beach and Nantucket resident and CEO of Orlando-based American Management Services, created PartnerAmerica in 2000 to work alongside the United States Conference of Mayors to help small businesses.

“I congratulate George Cloutier for creating ParnterAmerica, an innovative and practical program to help small businesses,” Mayor Frankel said.

Recently, Cloutier signed an historic 20-year contract, extending his collaboration with the United States Conference of Mayors through 2026.

“I am honored Mayor Frankel has recognized the work we do with small businesses, across the country and right here in Palm Beach County,” said George Cloutier.

Cloutier is the nation’s leading expert on small business turnarounds.
